

Consider Another's Experience

---

Person

How is this person describing their experience?

What about their experience do I understand?

Have I had an experience that helps me empathize?

What parts of their experience differ from mine?

What have I made harder?

What do I see now that I didn't see before?

What can I do to help things go right?